COMPONENT 1 - IMPROVE KNOWLEDGE OF LEGAL REMEDIES

Result 1.1: Partner CSOs, Professional Organizations, and Government Partners Launch Strategic Communication Campaign That Effectively Delivers Priority Access to Justice Messages to Targeted Vulnerable Populations

A2J approved the training materials and poster of the Sayed Al-Shuhadaa Organization, and the training materials of Hiyad Organization for legal rights awareness raising. Media messages and trainings target the respective vulnerable populations, which include divorced women, women with unregistered marriages, widows, and IDPs. As a result of the previous communications with Mercy Corps, these grantees were able to utilize the USAID-CAP III Literacy Centers to conduct awareness raising workshops.

Sayed Al-Shuhadaa legal rights awareness poster

Sayed Al-Shuhadaa Organization conducted a workshop designed for divorced women and widows on July 4th. Thirty-one participants, all women, attended and learned about their legal rights under Iraqi Law and how to receive social benefits. Mrs. Maha Kadhum, the instructor, is a lawyer and was able to speak from the powerful perspective of authority on the subject.

Al-Amal Al-Basriyah Organization conducted its first workshop on July 4th in one of the literacy centers in the Bani Mansoor area of Basrah to educate participants about the legal rights of persons with disabilities (PWDs). Eighteen disabled men and nine disabled women attended the workshop.

ICHRA conducted its first workshop in Haleemh Al-Sa'adiya literacy center in Al-Hussain Quarter in Basrah on June 25th for divorced women and widows. Twenty-five women attended the workshop and were provided information about their legal rights under Iraqi laws.

1.2.1 Awareness Campaign sponsored by Access to Justice Program to improve knowledge and access to legal rights in the target vulnerable groups in Iraq

East Studio for Art Works (East Studio) finalized the messages on the importance of registering marriages for print and electronic media and redesigned the campaign printings (brochures and billboards) based on feedback received from the focus groups discussions (FGDs) they held in Sulemaniyah, Basrah and Baghdad. A2J will review the new designs for approval.. East Studio is also revising scripts for the radio, TV programs, and TV spots and is expected to be received by the program next week.

Result 1.4: Effective Monitoring and Evaluation of Implementing Partner Public Awareness Campaigns

Perception Survey: Relief International (RI) conducted the first Focus Group Discussion (FGD) at the IBA headquarters in Baghdad. Participants included representatives from the Baghdad Provincial Council, the Ministry of Human Rights, the Ministry of Interior (Social Police), civil society organizations, the Sadr City Municipality Council, and the legal community. Many points were presented during the meeting to probe information about justice, human rights and vulnerable groups, the participants' emphasis on the importance of the survey that RI will conduct as a trusted source to be used in scientific researches, laws amendments and as a base for awareness raising campaigns.

A total number of 16200 questionnaire forms have been printed by RI in Arabic and Kurdish languages. The questionnaires have been sent to the survey team leaders in the north, central and south of Iraq to be distributed to the assessment officers. The process of completing the questionnaires through interviews with the target groups will begin next week in all Iraqi provinces.

An unscheduled site visit was conducted to Hataw Organization in Sulaymaniyah on July 1. A2J Erbil met with the Project Manager, Project Assistants, Media Specialist, Project Coordinator, Accountant and Logistics Officer. A2J has put the organization on probation for a 2-month period of time beginning July 1 for performance related reasons. Mentioned on last week's report, the organization has addressed issues raised by switching out key implementation personnel to improve performance management. The organization submitted their work plan for their awareness-raising campaign, which includes TV programs and printing of posters that will begin mid-July.

A2J met with Aswat Al-Iraq on July 28 to review progress on their grant activities. Through reviews of submitted materials and information gathered from site visits, Component 1 identified issues with the scheduling of workshops and usage of branding that needed to be discussed with the grantee.

COMPONENT 2 - IMPROVE LEGAL EDUCATION AND SERVICES

Result 2.1: Support Iraqi NGOs Working in Priority Access to Justice Areas to Improve their Administrative and Substantive Capacity to Support Vulnerable Populations

The C2 Team Leader trained the A2J Erbil team on proper technical reporting methodology to enable them to more effectively build the capacity of program grantees, and to develop their own reporting skills.

A2J met with two Erbil grantees: KHRW to revise their strategic partner grant application, and Civil Development Organization (CDO) to discuss reporting requirements.

A2J completed a site visit to Baghdad Women Association (BWA) on July 2 in Baghdad. The team provided technical assistance in reporting and classification, privacy, and proper methodology for case documentation. To date BWA has received 73 consultations and is representing five clients.

A2J Basrah completed a site visit to Sayed Al-Shudaa on July 5 in Basrah. The program provided technical assistance on creating a database, reporting, legal case classification system, documentation, coding system, and client confidentiality. The Sayed Al-Shudaa Project Assistant mentioned that they are facing a major challenge in getting clients to sign power of attorney forms. The program offered advice on how to overcome this hurdle.

Success Story

A couple living in the Basrah Province had failed to register their marriage. The wife, a displaced woman, is pregnant with their first child. They learned that it was to their benefit, and in fact required by law to register their marriage. However, they did not understand the procedures necessary to do this, and they could not hire a lawyer as they are struggling financially, as is the situation of many IDPs. The implication for their unborn child is that if their marriage is not registered, they will not be able to register their child and obtain an ID for the child. Without an ID, the child cannot attend school and receive medical support from the government.

This woman and her husband heard about the Taqwa Association legal clinic and the services it offers to vulnerable women through Taqwa outreach field visits. They met a lawyer who began the legal court proceedings to register the marriage which have now been completed. The couple is now legally married, and the lawyer is further assisting them in changing their ID status. As a result their child will now be born with identity and can be formally integrated into society.

Result 2.2: Work with Iraqi legal professional associations (primarily the Iraqi Bar Association and Jurist Union and their subsidiaries) to increase administrative and substantive capacity for empowering lawyers and other legal professional to assist vulnerable or disadvantaged populations

On July 5, the program began the second round of the four-day Human Rights for Legal Professional training in Baghdad in collaboration with IBA. The participants included 32 young lawyers (18 females, 14 males). The agenda includes an overview of international human rights laws, how to apply the laws at the national level, the role of lawyers in ensuring the application of those international human rights laws to which Iraq is signatory, and children's rights in international and national law, women's rights and the rights of internally displaced people.

Prior to this, A2J completed a site visit to the IBA on July 2 to receive the Arabic version of legal study of providing assistance for vulnerable group completed by the IBA. A2J also discussed the IBA's lawyers training that will be presented at the upcoming A2J Partners Meeting (July 15-16).

Result 2.3: Assist the IBA and other legal associations to "increase the supply" of lawyers assisting vulnerable or disadvantaged populations through initiatives such as continuing legal education (CLE) for lawyers, pre-service and orientation training for new lawyers, and targeted training on assisting specific vulnerable groups

IA2J staff provided training on the best legal clinic practices, how to document cases and fill necessary forms for the cases to KBA on July 4 at the IA2J office in Erbil. KBA lawyers have voluntarily completed many cases in Erbil, Koya and Rania as a part of their pro bono initiative that is a part of their grant project.

A2J visited the KBA on July 5 and were accompanied by UNDP and the staff of the UNDP-funded Court Help Desk to meet with the KBA Chairman, Mr. Wrya Sadi Ahmed. The purpose of this meeting was to strengthen the role of pro bono lawyers to support vulnerable people and to develop coordination between the UNDP help desk and the KBA pro bono lawyers. Until now, KBA lawyers have completed 21 cases of pro bono legal assistance out of a target of 50 cases in this pilot pro bono program that is a part of the broader A2J-funded KBA-run project.

Result 2.4: Support Development of Programs and Modernization of Academic and Practical Curriculum Related to Extending Access to Justice to Vulnerable Populations at Law Schools in Iraqi Universities in Key Locations throughout Iraq

The Program completed a two-day Law Schools Legal Clinic Workshop from June 30 to July 1 in Baghdad. The 15 participants included Deans and department managers from law schools identified by A2J as candidates to receive grants for legal clinics. The workshop was based on the A2J best practices model and was conducted by A2J lawyers Ali Raheem and Ali Naji. The facilitators provided in depth instruction through lecture and group discussion on establishing and operating legal clinic in law schools. The agenda included: Establishment and Operation of Legal Clinics in Iraqi Law Schools; Basic Criteria in Evaluating Future Grants to Establish Law Clinics in Iraqi Law Schools; Relationship between Students, Supervisors, and Legal Clinic Lawyers; Legal Clinic Curriculum; and the 10-Step Strategy for Curriculum Reform - Best Practices and Comparative Models.

COMPONENT 3 - ADVOCACY AND IMPROVED GOVERNMENT SERVICES

Result 3.1: Support Partners in Reviewing Processes and Procedures for Reform of Policies, Regulations, and Legislation as they Relate to Vulnerable Populations.

Access to Justice arranged a high-level meeting at the Council of Minister's request (COMSEC) of NGOs working in, and experienced in, women's employment issues in order to see how the Government might improve processes and legal frameworks to provide better assistance to women in gaining employment. This subject poses special challenges in Iraq where many women are not free to pursue careers without the close involvement of male members of their families, and may become homebound and unproductive due to a variety of social pressures.

To facilitate improvements in this situation, even though employment per se is not the program's mandate, at COMSEC's request the program staff reached out to the USAID Tijara project with respect to their microfinance activities and with respect to their employment generation work. A2J invited NGOs through Tijara that were related to those activities, as well as key grantee NGOs related to Program work who are also active in women's employment issues. Ten NGOs participated, notably including from Access to Justice Fatema House, Model Iraqi Women, and Al-Amal.

The meeting was chaired by the Deputy Secretary General of Council of Ministers, Rahman Issa, with whom the project has a growing relationship. In addition to the NGOs, the meeting was attended by the COP of Tijara, representatives of USAID's Economic Growth Office and also Democracy and Governance, as well as Access to Justice. COMSEC plans to work together with the NGOs in a type of working group, with a second meeting scheduled to take place within the next 7-10 days. By facilitating the creation of these types of working groups, Access to Justice has helped COMSEC build its relationship with civil society actors.

In the process of building and maintaining good relationships with the local Government in Basrah, as well as to work with them for the purpose of assisting vulnerable Iraqis, A2J visited the Basrah Provincial Council Chairman, Mr. Salah Al Bazouni. A2J briefed the Chairman on the Program and its mission to assist and support vulnerable populations through working with local partners through grants to fund activities to benefit the targeted vulnerable groups. Establishing legal clinics is one of the methods which will help the targeted by providing them with free legal services. In the course of working to assist vulnerable Iraqis through the legal clinics run by the grantees, many lessons will be learned some of which will necessitate changes in laws and government procedures to make things better for the vulnerable. Mr. Al Bazouni expressed appreciation for the Program and its mission and promised to work with A2J-supported NGOs for the benefit of the vulnerable. He emphasized the importance of focusing on the process of selecting and identifying NGOs that are capable of producing true assistance to people. He also mentioned that Iraqi society is in need of programs that are designed to help and support the vulnerable populations by raising awareness.
